

A photograph of a modern, minimalist hallway. The hallway is viewed through a large, arched opening in a dark wall. The walls are a light, neutral color, and the floor is a light-colored tile. At the end of the hallway is a large, wooden double door. The lighting is warm and ambient, with recessed lights in the ceiling. On the left wall, there is a sign that says "POWER". On the right wall, there is a sign that says "AVATON".
