1. Is there a fee for having a personal wedding coordinator?

Our hotel offers the dedicated support of an experienced in-house wedding planner at no extra cost, ready to turn your vision into reality. From the first consultation to the final toast, they'll guide you through every step with care, creativity, and professionalism. Our planner will be delighted to assist in creating a wedding that reflects your unique love story perfectly tailored, beautifully executed.

2. Do we have to book a private wedding banquet?

To ensure an exclusive and memorable experience on your special day, a private banquet at the hotel is for all wedding celebrations. This allows you and your guests to enjoy a dedicated space, personalized service, and a custom-designed menu tailored to your tastes. Please note that additional charges apply for private events, including venue setup and catering based on your selected menu and guest count. Our team will be happy to provide full details and assist in creating an unforgettable wedding celebration.

3. Can guests use their Premium All Inclusive during the Wedding day?

Guests on Premium All Inclusive can take advantage of their meal package and have a lunch or dinner at the main restaurant the day of the wedding at no extra charge. Additional charges will apply for special wedding menus for all participants: hotel residents and non-hotel residents.

4. Is there a day pass to attend the wedding for guests who don't stay at the hotel?

For guests who are not staying at the hotel, a day pass is required to attend the wedding celebration and enjoy the hotel's facilities. This pass grants access to the event areas, amenities, and services provided during the wedding day. The cost of the Day Pass Premium All Inclusive is 160 euro per adult and 80 euro for child. The passes must be arranged in advance to ensure a smooth and enjoyable experience for all. Our team will gladly assist with the process and provide full details to help you plan effortlessly for your special day.
